

Privacy Policy

First Church of Fort Worth respects your privacy and we want you to be confident in sharing your information with us. We've written the following statement to advise you about any of the information we gather while you are using our site.

We DO NOT share any identifiable information with any third party at any time.

Email Address: If you use any of the contact forms on-line, we keep your address on file as a way to inform you of changes or events.

Contact Info: When a user decides to become a member of our church, we might collect complete contact information, i.e. full name, address and phone number as well as other personal information. This information is only used by First Church of Fort Worth to validate the user's identity.

First Church of Fort Worth provides a number of links to third-party sites. These hyperlinks are provided for your reference and convenience only, and do not imply any endorsement of the activities of these third-party Web sites, nor any association with their operators. The Church encourages all web visitors to review the privacy policies and statements of all externally-linked websites.

If you have any questions about this privacy statement, the practices of this site, or your dealings with this Web site, please contact the Web Administrator.

Bill Daniels